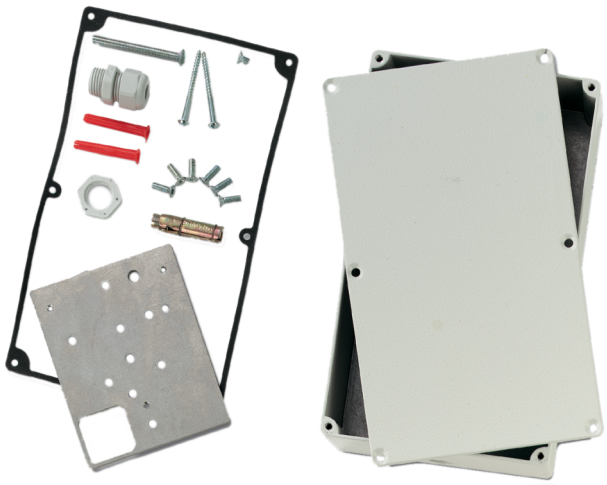
VM603P

Weather protection box

Weather protection box

To protect the seismic detector from vandalism or high humidity, use a VM603P protection box. In an environment with high humidity and large variations in temperature it is recommended to mount a heat resistor in the weather box and drill a small drain hole in the lowest point of the box.



VM603P
Weather protection box

Technical specifications

General

Accessory group	Seismiske sensorer
Type	Montering

As a company of innovation, Kidde Global Solutions reserves the right to change product specifications without notice. For the latest product specifications, visit firesecurityproducts.com online or contact your sales representative.

Last updated on 18 June 2026 - 14:33